

Australian Society for Biophysics
26th Annual Scientific Meeting
ASB 2002

University of Melbourne
November 29-30 2002

The ASB annual conference will be held at the University of Melbourne on Friday-Saturday November 29-30, 2002. ASB 2002 will consist of a two-day symposium followed by the AGM and dinner at a local restaurant.

Scientific Program

We have invited the following international speakers to our meeting:

Art Palmer (Columbia, USA)
Frank Caruso (Max Planck, Germany)

Sessions will include:

Biomolecular Structure and Dynamics
Fluorescence
Bionanotechnology
Photosynthesis, Real and Artificial
Biomaterials
Protein Folding
Ion Channels and Membranes

The symposium will consist of invited and contributed talks and poster presentations.

Abstracts

Abstracts that wish to be considered for oral and/or poster presentation should be submitted by October 1, 2002. Abstracts should be submitted both electronically (fs@unimelb.edu.au) and as hardcopy (original and 1 copy, printed on A4 paper in high quality 12 pt font). For an example of style see attachment.

Postgraduate Student Travel Grants

Postgraduate students (full time) who are members of the Society are invited to apply for a travel grant by contacting the ASB treasurer fs@unimelb.edu.au.

Young Biophysicist 2002 Award

Postgraduate student or postdoctoral researchers within 5 years of the award of their PhD may apply for the Young Biophysicist 2002 Award. If you wish to be considered for this Award, an application should be sent to the ASB Secretary Cyril.Curtain@spme.monash.edu.au by October 1.
